HE WANTED A CIGAR.

President Asked Permission to Smoke
But It Was Not Granted.

IS NOW ABLE TO EAT SOLID FOOD.

Had Toast and Coffee For Breakfast.
Satisfactory Progress Toward Recovery—Will Not Be Able to Sit Up For Some Time.

Buffalo, Sept. 12.—The early morning bulletin prepared by Dr. P. M. Rixey, the president's regular physician who remained with the patient all of Wednesday night, showed that Mr. McKinley had passed a comfortable night, but with little change in pulse and temperature. Dr. Rixey always remains on duty at night, but decided in view of the favorable aspect of the president's case to stay on duty alone.

About 8:30 the physicians arrived for the regular morning consultation, which was brief, the shortest since the president was stricken, and when they came out their elation was evident. Dr. Mynter announced that everything continued "eminently satisfactory." The president had a piece of toast and a cup of coffee," said he, "in addition to a cup of beef broth. He will want a cigar soon."

"Will he be able to sit up soon?"

"No, not for some time, not until the exterior wound in the abdomen heals and grows strong and his heart action grows normal."

"What is the cause of his accelerated pulse?"

"Oh, I cannot tell you, but it is nothing serious."

Drs. Park and Wasdin, who followed Dr. Mynter, confirmed the statement that the president had taken solid food for the first time.

Dr. Mann, who remained some time after the other physicians had gone, said the patient could not be doing better. "Why, he even asked for a cigar," said he laughingly.

"Did he get it?"

"Well, hardly. He will have to wait awhile before we allow him to smoke. When the afternoon consultation was over, the physicians announced that the condition of the patient continued favorable.

Telegrams, cables and letters continue to pour in, but their tone has changed. Expressions of pain, sympathy and grief have given way to congratulations and thanksgiving and the whole world seems to share in the rejoicing at the prospect of the president's recovery.

The bullet in the body is scarcely mentioned now either by the president, his friends or the physicians. As a factor it is seemingly ignored. The consensus of opinion of the physicians is that the outer wound will not be healed tight for several weeks and that it will be advisable for him to remain here quietly about a month. They will take no chances. Dr. McBurney says the president's ability to sit up is now purely a question of mechanics, but that such a move will not be permitted until the wound is perfectly strong.

Abner McKinley, the president's brother, is still here, but has not yet been admitted to his presence. The physicians say it would be safe now for the president to see an occasional visitor, but they desire to put off as long as possible the day when his friends and relatives will be admitted.

RUNNING DOWN CLEWS.

Indications That Ground Is Breaking Under Conspiracy Theory.

Buffalo, Sept. 12.—Assistant Superintendent of Police Cusack, acting for Superintendent Bull, made public the following statement: "No requisition papers have been asked for nor will there be today, nor have any been prepared."

The assistant superintendent declined to discuss the case, but the belief that the ground is breaking from under the conspiracy theory is growing.

It is reasoned that if the police had any kind of a case against Emma Goldman, there would be no delay in asking for custody of her.

They are still working away, however, and will not admit that they have failed until every expedient known to their craft has been exhausted. It is predicted here that Emma Goldman will be released soon, but the police will not admit that she will. It is thought an effort will be made to hold her just as long as possible to permit the fullest inquiry as to her alleged connection with the crime. If she is turned loose, state and federal authorities will never lose sight of her until the police investigation is finally concluded.

It was reported that the Buffalo authorities might request the federal government to take control of the Goldman case, but it was impossible to obtain any confirmation of the story. The grand jury of Erie county was in session, but neither the Czolgosz nor Goldman cases were placed before it. The police said they would act in the Czolgosz case just as soon as the president was pronounced out of danger. The police deny that there have been any developments affecting Czolgosz.

"We have not sufficient evidence to warrant the holding of Emma Goldman," District Attorney Penney announced just after he had a conference with Superintendent Bull. "We have not prepared any papers and of course have sent none on. Neither do we intend to prepare any extradition papers. You may say on our present evidence we cannot hold the Goldman woman and no extradition papers will be prepared today."

Emma Was Cheerful.

Chicago, Sept. 12.—Emma Goldman was extremely cheerful when she arose. She was not allowed to see the newspapers, but when told that the tenor of dispatches indicated a lack of evidence against her she smiled and said: "The gentlemen seem to be coming to their senses." She then added: "I would nurse the president of this country as tenderly as I would a hard-working man whose hands were soiled with toll. If I were not in jail and if the people about the president would let me, I would nurse him and nurse him well. To me, the president is simply a sick man. I am a trained nurse and I have the sympathy of a woman, the sympathy of an anarchist for suffering mankind. I would not be an anarchist, I could not be, without sympathy. It is not sympathy for a ruler, but sympathy for the man—the man who suffers, for the wife who suffers. By what I have said I do not mean to retract other statements I have made of my opinion of the president. As a president my opinion of Mr. McKinley is not high. Miss Goldman denied that there was such a thing as a constitution by which anarchists were governed."

Polish Indignation.

New York, Sept. 12.—Leon F. Wazeter, a Polish lawyer of this city, who went to Buffalo on behalf of the Polish colony of New York in the hope of being able to prove by investigation of the ancestry of Czolgosz that he was of Russian and not Polish origin, has returned to New York. He says that while he has established the fact that Czolgosz is a Pole and not a Slav, he is satisfied that the would-be assassin did not associate to any extent with the Polish colony. The Polish paper here comes out with a long editorial branding Czolgosz as an "individual who disgraced himself by an attempted murder" and expressing condemnation of his crime in unmeasured terms: "We suffer and feel more keenly the effects of the crime

CZOLGOSZ'S HOME, 306 FLEET STREET, CLEVELAND, because the monster who perpetrated it belongs to our nationality."

Framing Laws Against Anarchy.

Scranton, Pa., Sept. 12.—Congressman William Connell and Commissioner General of Immigration Powderly are in communication regarding the drafting of bills tending to deter anarchist crimes like that of Sept 6 at Buffalo. Mr. Powderly will work on the revision of the laws relating to immigration so as to prohibit the landing of anarchists. Congressman Connell will look after the matter of penalizing assaults on the person of the president and other officials. Mr. Connell proposes to have such assaults made a treasonable offense and declares that if the constitution stands in the way he will not stop short of an effort to change the constitution.

NAVAL INQUEST BEGUN

Official Ventilation of Controversy Over Santiago Victory.

ADMIRAL HOWISON WAS UNSEATED

Admiral Dewey Corrects Captain Lemly For Referring to Rear Admiral Schley as "The Accused"—Trial Opened With Boom of Guns.

Washington, Sept. 12.—The naval court of inquiry, which is to pass upon the charges against Rear Admiral Winfield Scott Schley, growing out of the West Indian campaign and the battle of Santiago Bay, convened at the Washington navy yard at 1 p. m. Thursday. Never before in the history of the navy has an issue been presented of such supreme and universal interest, not only to the navy, but to the general public, with conspicuous naval figures in the foreground of the controversy, others equally conspicuous as witnesses, adherents and spectators and with the active head of the navy establishment, Admiral Dewey, presiding over the tribunal.

All the naval officials, including the members of the court and Admiral Schley were in official dress uniform. An admiral's salute of 17 guns was fired as the court convened. Admiral Dewey simply said, in convening the court, "The court is open."

Admiral Dewey occupied a position in the center of the court table and was flanked on either side by Rear Admirals Benham and Howison, the associate members of the court.

The formal proceedings of the court were begun with the reading by Captain Lemly of Admiral Schley's letter requesting the convening of the court and the navy department's precept.

The court assumed a listening attitude, but Admiral Schley, known as "the applicant" in the case, gave only indifferent attention to the document. The admiral gave closer attention, however when the judge advocate began the reading of the order appointing Rear Admiral Howison a member of the court in place of Rear Admiral Kimberly and he continued to give careful heed when his letter to the department asking for a modification of paragraph five of the precept, regarding Admiral Schley's disobedience of orders was read together with the department's refusal to comply with the request.

None of these documents received more than perfunctory attention from the audience, but there was a general change of attitude when the next order of proceeding was reached. This was the challenge on the part of Rear Admiral Schley of Rear Admiral Howison, as a member of the court.

Admiral Schley's challenge was predicated on four paragraphs embodying formal accusations that Admiral Howison had expressed himself on the merits of the case, that the opinion expressed was unfavorable to Schley, thereby indicating bias and prejudice, and made comparisons personal to Sampson and Schley to the disparagement of the latter thereby rendering him ineligible to sit as a member of the court.

While this challenge, of course, was expected, it created some commotion coming as it did, without preliminary announcement beyond the question on the part of Captain Lemly as to whether the applicant had any objection to the court to urge.

Admiral Schley responded promptly. Rising from his seat he said: "I have to state with extreme regret that I am obliged to object to Rear Admiral Howison as a member of the court." He then read his formal objection. A hurried consultation among the members of the court followed. Admiral Dewey first turned to Admiral Benham, then stepped around the table and engaged Captain Lemly in conversation. He afterward spoke to Rear Admiral Howison.

In asking Rear Admiral Schley for a designation of his witnesses, Captain Lemly referred to Schley as the "accused." Admiral Dewey promptly called his attention to the error and the judge advocate general corrected it, using the words, "the applicant."

Captain Lemly asked if there was any evidence in support of the statements concerning Rear Admiral Howison, to which Mr. Rayner, speaking for Rear Admiral Schley, said there was. Admiral Dewey announced that this would be heard. Francis A. Frost of the Boston Record who had reported a conversation with Rear Admiral Howison in which the latter was alleged to have made reflections upon Rear Admiral Schley, and two other witnesses testified.

The court took an informal adjournment at 2:25 to permit Admiral Howison to prepare his statement to Admiral Schley's charges.

When the court reconvened, Admiral Howison presented his reply. He said he was here to obey the order of the department and he would not enter into a discussion of his private utterances. He had no personal feeling and he considered himself a competent member of the court.

The court sustained the objection to Admiral Howison and excused him as a member of the court. At 3:40 p. m. the court adjourned.

The court has adjourned until it is reconvened by the department which will not be until a successor to Admiral Howison has been named.

Sampson Not Present.

Burk Haven, N. H., Sept. 12.—Admiral Sampson is still here and so far as can be learned no arrangements have been made for him to go to Washington to participate in the Schley court of inquiry.

TAKE YOUR CHOICE.

Conflicting Reports Regarding the South American Rumpus.

New York, Sept. 12.—According to advices from Colombia, both sides are claiming victories. Arturo De Brigard, Colombian consul general here, has received a communication from General Jaime Cordova, governor of the department of Cauca. He tells of a government victory at Punta Piedra over the rebel forces of General Barriga and also of the defeat of the insurgent leader, General Marina, at La Piedras. In this engagement, General Cordova says the revolutionists lost 200 men. General Eduarda Vasquez, of the government army, was also killed in this battle. The latter was one of the wealthiest and most influential citizens of Antioquia. According to official advices the rebels suffered another defeat at El Hecchal, department of Santander, in which one of their chiefs was killed and another taken prisoner. General Cordova also writes that an invasion from Ecuador is feared. He charges that the president of Ecuador is supplying arms and ammunition to the revolutionists commanded by General Avelino Rosas for this purpose. The governor of Cauca adds: "In a short time we shall have nearly 20,000 men under arms in this department."

The information that comes to the local agents, gave an entirely different aspect to the state of affairs. This news tells of a battle fought at Macaque, department of Boyaca, which lasted several days. The government division under General Moya Vasquez, governor of Boyaca, to the number of 3,000, attacked the strongly entrenched force of 1,000 rebels commanded by General Benito Hernandez, with the result that the former were repulsed with a great loss to their ranks. Besides this, the insurgents secured ten pack mules, carrying 20,000 cartridges. The scene of this engagement is an excellent strategic point, and it is said that it will require an army of more than 5,000 to dislodge the Liberals from their stronghold. It is not definitely known how many were killed and wounded, but the number is said to have been large.

Orderly and Quiet.

Pittsburg, Sept. 12.—Quiet prevailed at all points affected by the steel strike in this vicinity in marked contrast to the excitement of the past few days. At McKeesport a small crowd of strikers still guarded the entrances to the National Tube works, but as that plant is practically tied up no men applied for work, and the pickets had nothing to do. The Demmeler tin plate works were in operation with about the same force as before and no attempt was made to interfere with the workmen. At the Monongahela tin plate plant in this city the mass of men, women and children that surrounded the property and blocked the streets every day this week, was conspicuous for its absence. This state of affairs was due to an order issued by Inspector Bradley of the South Side police district forbidding them to congregate on the streets under penalty of arrest. Seven more men were taken into the Star tin plate mill Thursday morning without molestation. At Lindsay & McCutcheon's and Painter's mills no strikers were seen and the workmen passed to and fro as freely as before the strike.

Misplaced Switch.

Syracuse, N. Y., Sept. 12.—The Chicago limited on the West Shore road, westbound, was wrecked at Eastwood, three miles east of this city. No one was seriously hurt. The cause was a misplaced switch. The locomotive, baggage car and three coaches left the track and overturned. The four Pullmans remained on the track. There were 25 passengers more or less injured and others were shaken up. The passengers were mainly Foresters returning from the Newburgh convention.

Camden, N. J., Sept. 12.—Ethelbert Stone, the laborer who was arrested here on suspicion of aiding and abetting the attempt to assassinate President McKinley, has been released. After a careful investigation, secret service agents could find nothing in criminating against him.

MEETING OF MONARCHS

Russian Czar and Emperor of Germany Exchange Amenities.

BANDS PLAYED NATIONAL ANTHEMS.

Royal Honors Conferred by the Imperial Potentates and Other Pompous Ceremonies Mark the Occasion—Foreign News.

Hela, Prussia, Sept. 12.—The meeting between Emperor Nicholas and Emperor William was favored with perfect weather. The Hohenzollern, flying the German and Russian imperial standards at the main mast, welcomed the Standart with an imperial salute, which the Standart returned, both crews dressing ship while the bands played the Russian and German national anthems. Count Plateau, the kaiser's aide, went on board the Standart to escort the czar, who went on board the Hohenzollern. The kaiser received his imperial visitor at the gangway, where the two monarchs embraced each other. They then inspected the guard of honor together, after which they retired to the quarter deck, where they remained in an animated conversation until luncheon.

Emperor William, Admiral Tiche, secretary of the admiralty and others in attendance on the two emperors, dined with the czar on board the Russian imperial yacht Standart after the imposing reception was ended.

The czar, personally bestowed the order of St. Andrew on the German imperial chancellor, Count Von Buelow and on Count Von Eulenberg and gave portraits of himself to the lesser German dignitaries.

Emperor William decorated Count Lamsdorff, the Russian foreign minister, with the order of merit of the Prussian crown and President Baron Fredericks, minister of the Russian imperial household and aide-de-camp general with the grand cross of the Red Eagle.

The czar and Emperor William remained on deck until after 11 o'clock, looking at the illuminated vessels. In the meanwhile, the western, or Blue squadron, passed to sea, each ship saluting as it passed the Standart.

The czar has appointed Emperor William to be chief of the Russian Dragoon regiment Narva No. 39, one of the most famous in the Russian army. Its former chief was Admiral, the Grand Duke Constantine Nicolaevitch.

Emperor William conferred with the czar in the uniform of the Alexandria regiment, the second Dragoon regiment of the Prussian guard.

Caught in a Trap.

Pretoria, Sept. 2.—While Colonel Monroe's column was returning from Barkley East to Dordrecht it was attacked by the Boers under Commandants Fouché and Myburgh in Wolke-loof. The advance guard was well in the pass when a terrific fire was opened upon it from the heights above the kloof. The British were in a precarious position on the flat, where there was little or no cover, but they rapidly unlimbered and returned a brisk fire. The fighting continued some time. The British had four wounded. It is reported that the Boers and four killed and a considerable number wounded. Next morning a reconnoitering force with big guns cleared Wolke-loof of the Boers who retreated in the direction of the Drakensberg. The British followed the burghers a considerable distance, shelling them incessantly.

Coming of Gen. Booth.

New York, Sept. 12.—William Booth, founder and commander of the Salvation army, is due to arrive in New York Sept. 28, and elaborate arrangements are being made for his reception. General Booth will remain in this city until Oct. 5 during which time there will be meetings in Carnegie Music hall and the Academy of Music, and a general conference of field officers of the east, of whom 1,000 are expected to attend from the central New England, Atlantic coast and western New York provinces. General Booth will then start on a tour of the United States, extending to the Pacific coast, returning to New York during the first week in February, and sailing for Europe Feb. 8.

Cotton Burned.

New York, Sept. 12.—Fire in the cotton storage warehouse owned by the New York Storage company in Brooklyn, caused damage to the amount of $600,000. The building, which is 300 feet long, is divided into three compartments separated by thick fire walls. The compartment in which the fire was confined contained 30,000 bales of cotton.

Posen, Prussia, Sept. 12.—The family of Leon Czolgosz, the anarchist who attempted to assassinate President McKinley, bails from Cerkkvice, near Zninin, province of Posen.

The story telegraphed the Cincinnati Enquirer of Thursday from California regarding the Goebel assassination was about the most improbable one that has yet been started.

THERE'S a trial now being conducted in this State for the crime of assassination in which it is sought by some to retard justice and punishment toward the guilty parties. In the light of recent events, wouldn't it be the part of decency as well as wisdom, to let all guilty men suffer the law's penalty in this case?

THE Republican wool grower hardly knows what to say these days; in fact he isn't saying much at all, but he is, doubtless, doing a "whole heap" of thinking. This explains why: In 1895, under Cleveland, medium grade wool was quoted in the Boston market at 16 to 24 cents. To-day the same grades are quoted at 11 to 17.

A MAN named Dr. W. T. Moore, of Columbia, Mo., is mad, so real mad that he proposes to vote the Democratic ticket. The reason for this mad spell is because the custom house officers in New York searched his baggage and found an English camera in the bottom of his trunk and taxed him $240 on said camera. The M. D. had been to Europe, and at one time owned and edited a religious newspaper in London. Our Democratic exchanges are terribly agitated over this terrible outrage (?) and are devoting columns for the pill-maker's benefit.—Ripley Bee.

Dr. Moore isn't a "pill-maker", Br'er Newcomb. Nor was it an "English camera," the custom official found in his trunk, but a camera he had purchased in this country and which he had taken on his European trip. What Rev. Dr. Moore got mad about was a new system of inspection inaugurated by the present revenue officials under which the pay of the customs officials at the various ports of entry depends upon the amount of revenue they turn in. As a result they are, it is claimed, exacting a tax where it is very often not due.

Tobacco cutting has commenced in some parts of the county.

In "The Romance of a Poor Young Man" last evening the Spooner Dramatic Company presented what is undoubtedly one of the best melodramas ever produced by a repertoire company in Maysville. Different in several important respects from the ordinary melodrama, it was received in a most appreciative and enthusiastic fashion by the large audience. To-night "The Pride of the Market," written especially for Miss Spooner, will be offered, and Miss Spooner will, by special request, sing "He Put Away a Suit of Gray to Wear the Union Blue." Ladies will again be admitted for 15 cents. Don't forget the family matinee Saturday afternoon at 2:30. Prices 10 and 20 cents.

COL. JAMES KILBOURNE, Democratic nominee for Governor of Ohio, a wealthy manufacturer, treats his employees in a quite different manner from that of the average manufacturer. For thirteen years now the company of which he is at the head has given the workmen in the factory an excursion to some point of interest. This year they were taken to the Buffalo Exposition in a special train of twelve coaches, accompanied by their families, and remained four days sight-seeing, the company bearing all expenses. In 1893 Col. Kilbourne took his employees in a body to the Chicago World's Fair, defraying the expenses. He has always accompanied the men and shared the same comforts and discomforts, and this year saw no deviation from his custom. It can be put down as a certainty that there will be no strikes on the part of Col. Kilbourne's employees.

How to Speak the Assassin's Name.

(Enquirer.)
It is very difficult to spell phonetically in English the name of Czolgosz, the miscreant who shot President McKinley. The nearest to it is "Schaw-goseh," but this is not quite correct. There is a suggestion of the letter "T" in the combination "Cz" at the beginning of the name and the letter "L" is slurred over in rapid pronunciation. The name might be spelled phonetically as "Tschaw-goseh," but the sound of the "T" is a little too harsh, as the combination "Cz" is more like the German "sch." The sound of the letter "L" fades away also when pronounced by a native of Poland. There is no meaning to the name Czolgosz.

NEWMAN DISCHARGED.

Court Holds That the Killing of Darius Moran Was Done in Self-Defense.

The examining trial of "Hack" Newman for killing Darius Moran came off Thursday before Judge Newell and resulted in the dismissal of the warrant and the discharge of Newman.

Cole & Son represented defendant and County Attorney O'Donnell was assisted by Mr. John L. Chamberlain in the prosecution of the case.

The trial occupied most of the day, a large number of witnesses being heard on each side.

Newman's account of the killing was substantially as heretofore given in the BULLETIN. The evidence showed that Moran and Newman and the latter's wife had had frequent quarrels and that Moran had threatened to kill Newman and told others he intended killing him.

The court decided that it was a case of self defense and discharged Newman.

Mr. C. C. McChord, of Springfield, Chairman of the Kentucky Railroad Commission, has been elected President of the Southern Association of Railroad Commissioners, which is in session in Asheville, N. C.

A reception will be given at the Y. M. C. A. rooms in honor of Mr. Pilkington, the new General Secretary, and Mr. C. P. Traxel, to-night. # The Swellest

OF THE SWELL

Patent Kid and Patent Leather Dress Shoes are here. The smartest shoes produced by the best manufacturers are here. The young men especially are pleased with them. We want every young man in town and county to see our line of swell footwear. Hanan & Son and W. L. Douglas our leaders.

Now the workingman is the man who needs good shoes; his work requires him to cover his feet with well made comfortable shoes.

If you want to be economical in your shoes don't buy cheap shoes, buy shoes that are made of good leather and built on honor. We sell that kind, and should perchance anything go wrong with a pair we are here to make the wrong right.

Mr. Workingman, we want your shoe trade.

Our fall line of Clothing is ready for your inspection; no house in the State carries Suits and Overcoats that compare with ours.

Rev. C. H. Greer will preach at the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in Washington Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

Only three Democrats and one Republican who have been selected as members of the County Election Commissions have declined to serve.

Chas. Cole & Co. have sold their stock of general merchandise at Johnson Junction to L. Taylor & Co., of Saltville. Mr. Cole has not yet decided in what line of business he will engage.

The murder conspiracy cases of the Commonwealth against W. S. Taylor, Charles Finley, Berry Howard, John Powers, Wm. Culton, Wharton and Green Golden were called for trial Thursday at Frankfort and continued to the January term of court. A rule was issued against the Sheriff of Bell County to come into court at the January term and show why he should not be punished for contempt in not arresting Berry Howard. The cases of Caleb Powers and Jim Howard were also continued, the mandate of the Court of Appeals not having been filed.

Taylor of "Ingiany" has been weighed in the balances and found wanting. And he always will be wanting when it comes to standing trial as accomplice in the assassination of Governor Goebel, as he doesn't want to face this kind of music; preferring to proclaim his "innocence" from Indiana rather than the chance to proclaim it from all the courts in the land. Indeed he hasn't any taste for courts or the law any longer, having wiped his feet of such business and gone into insurance. Now Taylor at Washington is never wanting either in weight or quantity of goods, when he sells twenty pounds of granulated sugar for $1 and ten pounds Arbuckle, Golden Rio or Levering coffee for $1.

Barkley doesn't propose to carry over a single pair of summer shoes if low prices will sell 'em. They will sacrifice the goods at cost and less rather than carry them till next spring. Though there is fully two more months of seasonable weather, they have decided to inaugurate a big clearance sale, beginning at once. Without resorting to fictitious values, the firm names interesting figures in their big advertisement elsewhere in this issue. Not many pairs are left in some lines, and if you want a bargain in shoes, step lively before they are all gone.

Mr. Dewees Outten, formerly with the BULLETIN, has accepted a position in New York.

Gentry's dog show will exhibit here September 23rd.

Clearance Sale of SHOES

IS NOW ON AT BARKLEY'S! Biggest sweep of Fine Summer Footwear in the history of Maysville. Not a pair reserved if low prices will sell them. We had rather close out what we have left of these goods at a sacrifice than carry 'em over till next spring. There's lots of warm weather still ahead. Fully two more months' wear may be had of low shoes. In this sale all profits go glimmering, and in many instances still deeper cuts have been made, original costs not having been considered. These quotations ought to make every foot in Maysville tingle for the want of a pair of these Shoes. Values are not fictitious, but former prices were readily obtained early in the season. Not many pairs are left in some lines, and if looking for a bargain with a big B you had better come quick before the lots are sold out.
